

Ramadan Blessings

-Manish Bera

This is the month of Ramadan. Namaz of Fajr has already begun. The sound of Namaz awakes all the locality, including Habib, the street mad man. He wakes up and laughs, realizing that he was sleeping all night, lying on a cow. Suddenly he is startled, hearing a faint crying sound. He finds a newborn baby with a bundle of clothes beside the cow. Amazed, he asks the baby, “Has Allah not given you a home? No problem, this Habib who has nothing will give you shelter.”

This was how Habib gained his Ramadan blessings in just a few minutes.
