

Vivechana Conclave: Alliance School of Law Explores Legal Aspects of India's Sports Sector

The Alliance School of Law, in collaboration with the office of Career Advancement and Networking successfully hosted its annual flagship event, “Vivechana,” at the Lalit Ashok Hotel. This year’s theme, “The New Era of Sports in India,” brought together prominent figures from the legal community, academia, and the sports industry to explore the evolving legal landscape within this dynamic field. The one-day conclave attracted a diverse audience of legal professionals, athletes, gaming enthusiasts, and students’ eager to gain insights into the legal intricacies of sports in India. The event commenced with a welcoming address by Dr. Shyam Kishore, Dean-Alliance School of Law, who highlighted the growing significance of sports law, evidenced by the enthusiastic participation of 40 teams from across India. Pro-Chancellor of Alliance University Mr. Abhay G. Chebbi emphasized the need to recognize sports as a multifaceted field with unique legal requirements. Dr. Ray Titus, Pro-Vice Chancellor of Incubation & Innovation and Dean of Alliance School of Business, delivered an inspiring inaugural address. The event’s highlight was an address by the chief guest Mr. Arjun Devaiah Theethamada, National Sprint Champion and International Athlete. Mr. Devaiah offered valuable insights into the prospects of the new era of sports in India. Following the main event, attendees were treated to two engaging panel discussions, each addressing critical themes. The event served as a valuable platform for raising awareness and educating the public about the evolving legal landscape of sports in India.
